Youth group meetings – after church Sundays

Oct 21; Nov 4, 18; Dec 2, 16

WINDERMERE STRING QUARTET CONCERT: Sunday October 21 at 3:00 p.m. “Sacred Spaces” WSQ open space for musical reflection with two works with a religious theme. Carl Loewe’s Quatuor Spirituel, an unusual and highly intriguing work from 1830, carries a specific program based on psalms and scripture. WSQ are looking forward to reprising Julia Mermelstein’s Echoes of Illumina commissioned by them in 2015, which draws on a motet by Gesualdo. They round out this programme with Beethoven’s Op. 18 #1, whose slow movement is a musical evocation of Romeo and Juliet in their tomb.

VISITING CHOIR TO SING EVENSONG: The professional choir of St. Paul’s Cathedral, London, Ontario, will be visiting St. Olave’s! The Cathedral choir, under the direction of Andrew Mackriell, offered to visit our parish and to sing evensong on Sunday, October 28, (the Feast of St. Simon and St. Jude) at 5:00 p.m. They will be singing the Truro Evening Canticles by Philip Stopford, There Is A Stream by Peter Hallock, and the Preces and Responses by Antony Baldwin. Following the service, a dinner will be served in the parish hall. Mark this date in your calendar and join us for what promises to be a beautiful service.

REFORMATION AND THE PRINTING PRESS – Thursday November 1

All Saints Communion at 6 pm followed by light supper at 6:40. From 7 to 8 pm we conclude our year-long celebration of the Reformation which started in 1517, as Dr. Pearce Carefoote (Head of U of T's rare-book collection) explains in an illustrated talk that it couldn't have happened as it did without the invention of the printing press.

FOR KING AND COUNTRY – Sunday November 4

Choral Evensong for All Souls at 4 p.m., followed by Pumpkin Tea. At 5 p.m., For the centenary of World War I's ending, historian Richard Fiennes-Clinton explores the special role of the monarch at such occasions of national importance, through vintage photographs, films, videos and music.

CHRISTMAS CRAFT SHOW & COFFEE HOUSE – NOVEMBER 17

It is time again for our annual Christmas Craft Show & Coffee House, happening on Saturday, November 17th, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m! In our Parish Hall, shop at 25 tables that will feature original, unique items from artisans and craftspeople as vendors. On the stage, enjoy a specialty coffee from Starbucks, a delicious bistro lunch and tasty treats in our Coffee House. In the Ethel Brown Room, support our ACW, browse their book tables and select homemade food and crafts. A toonie admission at the door will get you in and children under 12 get in free. Admission proceeds will go towards the Primate's World Relief Fund, supporting a South Sudan peace project. Bring your Christmas shopping list and come to see, shop and enjoy! Contact Annis Tebbutt at annist@rogers.com or see www.stolaves.ca for any further information. Volunteers are welcome to come forward, to assist, before, during or after the Christmas Craft Show such as in the kitchen, on admissions. For those interested in helping out, please get in touch with Annis.

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE IN DYING (MAID): York Credit Valley Area Council presents a discussion event on MAID. Saturday November 24, 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. St. John the Baptist, Dixie, Anglican Church, 719 Dundas Street East, Mississauga. Guest speakers will include Rev. Dr. Eric Beresford and Mr. Michael Buttrey. This is the first of two sessions for clergy and lay people of the YCV Area. This first session will take a historical overview of how we got to where we are today and will outline a biblical and theological framework for thinking about medical assistance in dying. The second session (date tbd) will look at practical implications for pastors, medical professionals, and caregivers. Register online via the YCV Area webpage. http://www.toronto.anglican.ca/about-the-diocese/area-bishops/york-credit-valley-2/ycv_events/
