

Diocesan Choir Camp Music Day hosted by St. Olaves, Swansea

Saturday May 2nd, 2026

Welcome to Choir Camp!

The Toronto Diocesan Choir Camp has traditionally been a residential music camp for Anglican youth interested in choral music, held in August each year.... but we have changed our format to align with the times and we are now sponsoring single day events!

Let's get together to celebrate choral music at St. Olaves, Swansea!

Both camp alumni and new singers of any age or voicing (SATB) who enjoy choral church music, are invited to join us for a Choir Camp Music Day at St. Olaves, Swansea on Saturday May 2nd! This is an intergenerational event and families are most welcome!

Our day will feature choral singing workshops with our clinician Nicholas Nicolaidas. Nicholas is an award-winning conductor, professional tenor, and respected vocal pedagogue based in Toronto (see attached bio). We will also enjoy some outdoor fellowship activities and a catered lunch. We will end our time together with a Service of Thanksgiving featuring choral music from our workshops. There is no cost for this event, but pre-registration is required!

Choir Camp Music Day April 2024, Trinity Aurora!

Meet our clinician!

Nicholas Nicolaidis is an award-winning conductor, professional tenor, and respected vocal pedagogue based in Toronto. He serves as Assistant Conductor of the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir and is the co-founder and musical director of the Trinity Bach Project, where he brings scholarly insight and vibrant musicianship to Bach's choral works.

A graduate of the University of the Witwatersrand (BMus, Vocal Performance) with further studies in London, Nicholas is also a professional tenor with the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir and Elora Singers, frequently appearing in major choral repertoire including Bach's Passions and the great oratorio works.

In addition to maintaining a thriving private voice studio, he teaches vocal health and technique at Royal St George's College and St Michael's Choir School. Known for his clarity, energy, and technical precision, Nicholas equips singers with the tools to perform with confidence, stylistic understanding, and expressive freedom.
